Tour Itinerary

Your South Iceland journey will take you through the country's lush farmlands, flanked by rugged mountains, glaciers (including the infamous Eyjafjallajökull) and volcanoes of the interior on one side and vast Atlantic ocean views on the other.

On this tour of South Iceland, you will also experience the powerful beauty of Seljalandsfoss waterfall, where the Seljalandsá river, which originates under Eyjafjallajökull glacier, falls, as well as Skógafoss, one of the largest waterfalls in Iceland.

Just outside the town of Vík í Mýrdal (or just Vík to the locals), you will visit the soaring basalt rock formation known as Reynisdrangar and the black sand beach of Reynisfjara.

A written description is nothing compared to the lived experience. Let the guides at Gray Line bring South Iceland to life with stories, facts, science, and history.

Please note

- Packing a raincoat and waterproof boots is a good idea if you plan on enjoying its waterfalls up close.

Overnight in Reykjavík.

Day 4: Reykjavik City or optional tours
